Course networking at Berjaya UCH

COURSENETWORKING, LLC (CN) is an academic social networking site that offers online courses in a globally accessible learning environment. Patterned after networking sites like Facebook and Twitter, it targets young people between 18 and 30, for whom this method of learning is second nature.

The networking site also offers Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) which serves to enhance teaching and learning in Berjaya University College of Hospitality (Berjaya UCH).

Through MOOC, instructors and learners alike may be located anywhere in the world, but are able to exchange ideas which are universal.

Berjaya UCH is the first university
